O Lord, give me Your Strength to proclaim Your Word with fervour, So many are waiting anxiously to hear Your Loving Word and listen in silence and in thirst;

Let Your Words drop on them, one by one to refresh them, Look how they are in Your assemblies, open-mouthed, as if to catch the year's last showers;
For the sake of Your great Love, let Your rain fall on lands where no one lives and make out of a sterile land, gardens; give drink to the lonely wastes, making grass spring where everything was dry;

Come, in Your Lordly style, and drive frantic the proud of heart; come and pull down, with Your Royal Sceptre, the haughty from their thrones and exalt the lowly, the meek;

I speak to Your Heart? It is You who valued me beyond price; it is You who cured my eyes;* My perfect One, it was You who told me of Your faithfulness; it was You Yourself who brought me to Your Royal Courts, to walk freely in them; how I wanted to rank you with My own and give you My Body*.... I wanted so much to heal your disloyalty and count you as one of My brides.... My burning desire was to make Myself known to you in a most intimate way and show *symbolically *Jesus means the Holy Eucharist.

you the True God, the living God, the everlasting King; 'let* not this world reduce My lily to silence, let not their conspiracies affect her or touch her soul but let My psalms continue to be for her and for all those who hear them like a wedding song, that they get to know the Triune True God who is Father of All'; now My lily, I will

* Jesus with a firm but low Voice, sounding like a command, uttered the words that followed; He was like He was talking to Himself, like one says: "thinking aloud."
